Volume 19 Issue 7

March 2017

SPOTLIGHT

OLLI members and guests heard a fascinating talk by UCI Law School Dean Erwin Chemerinsky about his new book, Closing The Courthouse Door, after a delicious three-course dinner at Moulin Bistro. Thanks to Toni Dwyer and her committee for this informative and successful event.

THE BOARD'S CORNER

We are beginning our second month of our second semester in our new facility and are really becoming familiar with all the complexities of a new location. What we really appreciate is having the space to seat 150 members compared to the 85 limit at Woodbridge. We will continue to publicize classes that have space in our weekly KIT and allow walk-ins whenever possible.

In addition, the improved audio-visual makes every presentation accessible to members. Please bear with us if sometimes there are minor set-backs. Every new installation takes a bit of adjustment.

As we move into this second semester, the Curriculum Committees are busy with the Fall semester, and Summer Lite is shaping up too. Those who are interested in the latter, please look for an announcement that will ask for suggestions to include in July's offerings.

Enjoy the classes and events that fellow members make possible and think about joining them in that process. Look on the bulletin boards for Curriculum Committee meeting dates or contact committee chairs directly.

Pat Linehan, President, OLLI at UCI

OLLI INFO

Enrolling in Additional Classes for 2017 began February 16th and will continue as long as there are open classes!

Members may now enroll in additional courses if space is available. Go to our website at www.ce.uci.edu/olli to enroll online or call 949-824-5414. You may also walk in to classes with space available without pre-registering. Check the weekly KIT Mail, sent to all members each Monday morning, for availability in that week's classes.

Update on our Upcoming 20th Anniversary Celebration

Looking at the calendar realistically, we have moved our 20th Anniversary Gala to Fall 2017. Details will be announced as we get closer to the Fall Semester.

Reminders for our New Location

- Please do not park in the 90-minute spots for a two-hour class. You could get a ticket! There is always plenty of parking on levels three and four of the parking structure, with nearby elevators.
- Please reserve the use of the single bathroom in the office for those with a disability. The station bathrooms are only a one-minute walk away!
- Let the office know if you have any problems accessing the classroom or if you have special hearing or vision needs. We may be able to help.

Note our amazing Director's Voice Productions on Sundays at the UCI campus. The following performances still have seats available:

Clown Aliens (SE 63) March 12

Library News

Two new OLLI Library donations give the background on the conditions and ideas that animate the modern world and allow you to gain greater insights into the present:

The Development of European Civilization is composed of 48 lectures that trace the development of European civilization from the Middle Ages until 1939 by investigating the interdependency between ideas and action, ideology and practice, theory and events.

History of the Ancient World: A Global Perspective is composed of 48 lectures that combine a sweeping sure of all of world history, from the beginning of civilization up until the origins of the modern world were established, with targeted in-depth analysis of key figures, moments and inventions.
